TRAIN HITS TRUCK

White Man And Negro Struck Near Seaford, Delaware

Seaford, Del., Aug. 6.—Two were killed, a white man and a negro, and two injured, also a white man and negro, at the crossing in front of Colonel James J. Ross' home, one mile from Seaford, Tuesday morning, when a southbound passenger train struck a truck belonging to Colonel Ross, in which were riding Edgar Willey, white; Albert Houston and George Jannon, colored, all employees of Colonel Ross.

A storm was brewing at the time and Houston, who was driving, failed to hear the train. The train struck the truck, wrecking it and killing Willey and Cannon outright. Houston was severely injured, but his wounds will not prove fatal. Engineer Callaway, of the passenger train, was cut by flying glass, but not seriously hurt.

VIRGINIA WETS WIN

Temperance Advocates Not Sure of Having Saved Legislature

Richmond, Va., Aug. 7.—Late returns from Tuesday's primaries to nominate legislative candidates show a large number of men favoring the abolition of the State prohibition department to be winners.

The temperance forces were defeated in several of their strongholds. Just whether the anti prohibition department forces will have a majority in both branches of the legislature is not yet known, as the results are in doubt in several places, but indications are that the temperance advocates have lost control of a number of the most important districts in the State.

Warrenton, Va., Aug. 7.—Complete returns from the primary election of Tuesday give William Horgan 263 majority over Major R. A. McIntyre for Commonwealth's attorney for the State Senate, Capt. J. Brad Beverly also received a plurality of approximately 260 over Lucien Keith and F. E. Bowman. This represents the State senatorial district of Loudoun and Fauquier counties. Keith is the present representative in the State Senate, and his defeat came as a great surprise.

GOLD BRICK SWINDE

Chester Man Parts With Good Bank Notes Expecting to Get $1,000

Chester, Pa., Aug. 7.—Michael Kobylmyk, a downtown grocer, is mourning the disappearance of $900, all in new $20 bank notes, which Kobylmyk handed over to a couple of his fellow countrymen Tuesday in order to get $1,000 in gold. When the men and the gold failed to put in an appearance on scheduled time Kobylmyk became worried, but he waited until this morning to complain to the police.

"Flimflam," ejaculated Detective McNeal, to whom Kobylmyk told his tale of woe, imploring help to get his money back.

A couple of slick strangers called on Kobylmyk a few days ago and began to bargain to buy his grocery store, offering a good price for the business. Yesterday they called to complete negotiations, but neither of the prospective buyers had much money.

Another man was introduced to Kobylmyk, and while the third man did not have much ready money, he produced several squares of yellow metal which looked to Kobylmyk like the real goods.

"It's gold," said one of the men in a whisper to Kobylmyk, "and he knows where he can get a lot more of it. If you want him to he will get you $1,000 worth and all it will cost you is $900."

All three men left to get the gold, taking Kobylmyk's $900 with them. They have not returned to complete the purchase of the grocery business.

SAYS VA. DIVORCE IS NO GOOD IN DISTRICT

Attacking the validity of a void decree, Hilton Jones has filed suit for custody of his child, seven year old Lillian Jones, who is now held by the mother, Bertha Jones. Jones in his petition asserts his wife is not a fit person to care for his child. He says that the absolute divorce decree issued by a Virginia court to his wife last May is null and void, because his wife is a resident of the District. He is represented by Attorneys King, Simon & Young.
